CEREMONY:

- Reach out to Julian for ceremony specifics

COST:

Reserve your spot with a $300 non-refundable deposit
(Venmo @SmithInPractice).

The deposit covers basic expenses such as lodging and food.*

After the weekend, you'll be invited to make an additional self-determined donation. A donation is expected, but the amount is up to you. Choose an amount that feels generous without causing you financial hardship.

For reference, an additional average donation of $300 per person makes this work sustainable for me.*

*Based on 5 paying participants.

COMMITMENT & CANCELLATION:

Because our group is small, each person's presence is deeply felt. Please commit at least two weeks before the first night so you have time for the recommended preparation. Cancellations affect the whole group, and a replacement is rarely found, especially on short notice. If you cancel, please expect to forfeit your deposit. In rare circumstances I may make an exception.
